

Mary E. Griswold School Code of Conduct

Griswold Eagles SOAR when we ...

- Are Kind
- Are Responsible
- Are Safe
- Make Things Better

Even with proper guidance from home and school, children will still have difficulty making correct choices from time to time. When they do, the school will use a variety of strategies to ensure that the discipline provided is a learning experience with the ultimate goal being that the child will develop skills to solve future problems within the guidelines of our school expectations. Whenever possible, logical consequences are given related to the unsolved problem the student experienced. Some consequences used may include:

Verbal Warning
Note Home
Increased Structure
Separation from Peers
Assigned Seat
Written Reflection
Service to the School
Mediation
Phone Call Home

Loss of Recess Time
Office Lunch
Loss of Privileges
After-School Detention
Apology Note
Conference
In-School Suspension
Out of School Suspension
Expulsion
